Successful Women in Real Estate Breakfast

Real Estate Innovation Festival 2023 | 08:30 – 10:00, Tuesday October 24

Join us for an informal breakfast gathering featuring a panel of trailblazing female leaders discussing industry hot topics, debating the progress of D&I in commercial and residential real estate and sharing their own journeys and insights. Expect to be energised, inspired, to make new connections and to enjoy some tasty breakfast treats.

This event is free of charge for registered Real Estate Innovation Festival 2023 attendees. Places are limited to 50 and are secured on a first come first served basis. This event is open to all - male champions of change are encouraged and welcome to attend.

Rave reviews from 2022 event attendees

"Wrapping up an all too short visit to Sydney for the FuturePlace Real Estate Innovation Festival. I've said it a few times now but an absolute masterclass was put on by FuturePlace on how to run a relevant and valuable event. More than anything these few days have punctuated the power of real human connections".

Jordan Kostelac, Director PropTech, Asia Pacific, JLL (Hong Kong)

"Innovation, conversation and ideas galore. It's rare to attend an event with such a great blend of topics, networking opportunities and speakers. The event is so relevant to future proofing the sector in a meaningful way. Exceptional from start to finish".

Anita Brdjanovic, Digital and IT Recruitment, Paxus

"Congratulations on another fantastic event today and yesterday! The speakers and content today were exceptional. The speech on the metaverse was fun and mind boggling".

Heidi Thorne, Head of Asset Management, Logistics, GPT

"Two amazing days, with over 50 incredible speakers and many inspiring people from around the globe. After years of virtual events, it feels so good to meet people in person".

Anita Brdjanovic, Digital and IT Recruitment, Paxus

"The festival was packed full of ideas from an array of startups and more seasoned players".

Rick Walters, Chief of Standards and Innovation, GRESB
